RENEWAL OF APPEALS FOR MRS. MAYBRICK

MAY BE RELEASED FROM PRISON

Priendly Relations Between England and America May Restore the Woman to Liberty.

Friends of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, im prisoned in England after being convict. ed of murdering her husband, are making renewed efforts to secure her release.

The State Department has received nev

erel communications within a few mouths orging that, on account of the present good feeling between the United States and Great Britam, this would be an op-portune time to bring the matter to the attention of the British government. It is represented that Mrs. Maybrick is in delicate health and may die in prison is

It is understood that the new ambasis-dor to Great Britain, when appointed, will be instructed to do wrat he can towill be instructed to do what he can to-ward scarring Mrs. Maybrack's release. As she was convicted in due legal form, the United States authorities can only express a hope that the British govern-ment may see fit to pardon her. Such representations have been made from time to time since she can error to preson, but have not been effective.

but bave not been effective.

The new ambanuador, it is thought, may be able to have the prison doors eponed for Mrs. Moybrack, not alone on second of the friendly feeling test exis is between the two countries, but also for the reason that many persons in the trained States and Engand betwee there was such could us to Mrs. Maybrick's guill as would have warranted the jury in
